

~~SECRET~~

MEMORANDUM FOR: Sino-Soviet Studies Group/OCI

SUBJECT: The Sino-Soviet Controversy in Cuba
and Other Latin American Countries

25X1A2g

The attached brief deals with the problem of the Sino-Soviet dispute in Cuba and other Latin American countries. It is a working paper prepared for use within certain components of the DDP to focus increased attention on the Sino-Soviet controversy and, in particular, its relationship to leftist factionalism and policy differences in the various countries. It does not represent finished or coordinated intelligence. However, in the belief that the study may be of general interest, it is being given wider dissemination. Copies have been forwarded under separate cover to the DDI, the Office of Current Intelligence, and the Senior Research Staff. External dissemination has been limited to the Department of State, with copies for the Director of Intelligence and Research and the Chairman of the Committee on International Communism. Any comments would be appreciated.

25X1A9a

for
Chief, Counter Intelligence Staff

Attachment: 1 - subject as above

25X1A8a

25X1A9a

8 March 1961

Distribution:

Orig. & 1 - Addressee

1 -

✓1 -

25X1A8a

~~SECRET~~

25X1A8a

~~SECRET~~

15 MAR 1961

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director (Intelligence)

SUBJECT: The Sino-Soviet Controversy in Cuba
and Other Latin American Countries

25X1A2g

The attached brief deals with the problem of the Sino-Soviet dispute in Cuba and other Latin American countries. It is a working paper prepared for use within certain components of the DDP to focus increased attention on the Sino-Soviet controversy and, in particular, its relationship to leftist factionalism and policy differences in the various countries. It does not represent finished or coordinated intelligence. However, in the belief that the study may be of general interest, it is being given wider dissemination. Copies have been forwarded under separate cover to the Office of Current Intelligence, the Senior Research Staff, and the Sino-Soviet Task Force. External dissemination has been limited to the Department of State, with copies for the Director of Intelligence and Research and the Chairman of the Committee on International Communism.

25X1A9a

25X1A9a

Chief, Counter Intelligence Staff

Attachments: 1 - subject as above

25X1A9a

25X1A8a

8 March 1961

Distribution:

Orig. & 1 - Addressee w/a

1 -

✓1 -

25X1A8a

~~SECRET~~

25X1A8a

~~SECRET~~
Sanitized - Approved For Release CIA-RDP78-0091

15 MAR 1961

MEMORANDUM FOR: AD/CI

SUBJECT: The Sino-Soviet Controversy in Cuba
and Other Latin American Countries

25X1A2g

The attached brief deals with the problem of the Sino-Soviet dispute in Cuba and other Latin American countries. It is a working paper prepared for use within certain components of the DDP to focus increased attention on the Sino-Soviet controversy and, in particular, its relationship to leftist factionalism and policy differences in the various countries. It does not represent finished or coordinated intelligence. However, in the belief that the study may be of general interest, it is being given wider dissemination. Copies have been forwarded under separate cover to the DDI, the Senior Research Staff, and the Sino-Soviet Task Force. External dissemination has been limited to the Department of State, with copies for the Director of Intelligence and Research and the Chairman of the Committee on International Communism.

25X1A9a

25X1A9a

James H. Angleton
Chief, Counter Intelligence Staff

Attachment: 1 - subject as above

25X1A8a 25X1A9a

8 March 1961

Distribution:

Orig. & 1 - Addressee

1 -

√1 -

25X1A8a

Sanitized - Approved For Release : CIA-RDP78-00915R001200250005-6

~~SECRET~~

MEMORANDUM FOR: C/DDI/SRS

SUBJECT: The Sino-Soviet Controversy in Cuba
and Other Latin American Countries

25X1A2g

The attached brief deals with the problem of the Sino-Soviet dispute in Cuba and other Latin American countries. It is a working paper prepared for use within certain components of the DDP to focus increased attention on the Sino-Soviet controversy and, in particular, its relationship to leftist factionalism and policy differences in the various countries. It does not represent finished or coordinated intelligence. However, in the belief that the study may be of general interest, it is being given wider dissemination. Copies have been forwarded under separate cover to the DDI, the Office of Current Intelligence, and the Sino-Soviet Task Force. External dissemination has been limited to the Department of State, with copies for the Director of Intelligence and Research and the Chairman of the Committee on International Communism. Any comments would be appreciated.

25X1A9a

25X1A9a

Chief, Counter Intelligence Staff

Attachment: 1 - subject as above

25X1A8a 25X1A9a

8 March 1961

Distribution:

Orig. & 1 - Addressee w/a

1 -

✓ -

25X1A8a

~~SECRET~~

~~SECRET~~

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Intelligence and Research
Department of State

SUBJECT: The Sino-Soviet Controversy in Cuba
and Other Latin American Countries

25X1A2g

The attached brief deals with the problems of the Sino-Soviet dispute in Cuba and other Latin American countries. It is a working paper prepared for use within certain limited components of the CIA to focus increased attention on the Sino-Soviet controversy and, in particular, its relationship to leftist factionalism and policy differences in the various countries. It does not represent finished or coordinated intelligence. However, in the belief that the study may be of interest, it is being disseminated to your office for background use only. It is requested that copies be brought to the attention of Mr. Bernard Morris and Mr. William A. Crawford, Chairman of the Committee on International Communism, for their information and comment.

FOR THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR (PLANS):

25X1A9a

25X1A9a

25X1A2g

Attachments: 4 - subject as above

25X1A8a

8 March 1961

Distribution:

Orig. & 1 - Addressee w/a

1 -
1 -
1 -
1 -
1 -

25X1A8a

~~SECRET~~